

MORNING APPEAL

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

The death of ex-President Hayes recalls a long forgotten man to the attention of the American public.

He had a chance to pass down to posterity as the greatest American who ever lived, but he was not broad enough to grasp the tremendous opportunity that fate held out to him. That opportunity was the refusal of a fraudulent title to the Presidency given him by the Louisiana Retiring Board.

That Tilden the Democratic candidate was fairly elected is not disputed by any fair minded man who does not allow his partisanship to warp his sense of justice.

Hayes knew perfectly well of the fraudulent character of his certificate; knew perfectly well of the jobberies and purgeries employed to produce it.

Had he been possessed of the high sense of honor one would expect in a man aspiring for such an office, he would have declined it in favor of his political opponent, and having once done this the fame of the man broad-minded enough to refuse the scepter that ruled the greatest country of the earth, would have gone down to posterity in such a way that every generation would have but added to the lustre of his name.

But his ambition was beyond his control, he took what did not belong to him; became an accessory after the fact with the Louisiana Retiring Board, and as he did so caused the blush of shame to mantle the cheeks of every honest man of his party and after his term was served he sank out of sight only to be known to the people of his own immediate neighborhood, the least respected of all the Presidents of the American Republic.

THE WARDENSHIP FIGHT.

All the factions were behind their entrenchments in the Wardenship fight yesterday. All the political bosses and hustlers of Washoe were up here, and there was hard fighting all along the line.

The opposition forces held their ranks unbroken all day, and all the candidates stayed in the trenches last night to watch every move of the enemy and pounce on the first combination made, and stamp the stuffing out of it.

It is regarded as a fight of the people against budding bossism, and the men who are holding out with the allied forces are receiving letters and telegrams from all quarters to stand firm. Already the men who a few days ago were issuing their edicts to the party from the purple throne, are now seeking to make concessions with anybody, without avail.

A Husband's Brutality.

Radford, Va., January 19.—The wife of W. Fillie, who came here from Illinois recently, was found chained in a deserted barn near town on Monday. Fillie had spread the story that the woman was insane and would be sent to an asylum. On examination she proved to be perfectly sane. It is surmised that Fillie and a woman who posed as his housekeeper were trying to put Mrs. Fillie out of the way. Fillie is under arrest and the jail is guarded, as there is danger of lynching.

Is Baby Ruth to Have a Rival?

In the intimate circles of President-elect Cleveland's friends there is much rejoicing over the fact that when the White House opens to receive the choice of the Democratic party the dark spell that has hovered over it will be in a fair way to be lifted. One being passed out of the world, another enters existence, just as the morning succeeds the night. Should the newcomer prove to be a boy the cup of earthly happiness will be full for Grover Cleveland.

Senator Jones.

London, January 19.—Senator Jones and family started for Paris today. After a brief visit he will sail for America on Saturday. The Senator was visited while here by various members of the House of Commons and other public men interested in the silver question. The Senator says he has been agreeably surprised at the awakening in England to the value of bimetalism.

Hon. C. C. Powning is in the city. He is reported to be a Bell man.
